Baltimore

This exquisite sea-side village is the perfect wedding destination. Just 100km from Cork Airport, Ferryport and Killarney, it's ideal for island hopping on the 100 Carbery islands and offers a myriad of activities including scuba diving, deep-sea fishing, golf and exhilarating walks.

Several festivals are held in Baltimore annually and it is renowned for its challenging sailing coastline. www.baltimore.ie

Casey's of Baltimore

Your first 'port of call' as you enter Baltimore is Casey's, with its distinctive stone-clad frontage. Family owned and with 14 ensuite modern guestrooms Casey's can accommodate any discerning wedding party.

Wedding Package

Tailored to suit personal choice and budgets, the Casey family's attention to detail will be evident throughout. From the red carpet welcome to the farewell drink, no stone is left unturned in ensuring your wedding is a memorable one.

Whether it's a contemporary wedding, blessings or a civil ceremony, you can relax in the knowledge that your wedding will run smoothly. The hotel houses a popular traditional bar and an award-winning restaurant featuring locally sourced seafood and the best of West Cork produce and a sea-facing dining room with seating for 120 wedding guests.

Ask about our varied menus, including tantalising crab infused with apple and basil, prime roast sirloin of West Cork beef, or monkfish medallions served with a light mustard sauce. Several options and price ranges are offered to suit even the most discerning palate.

From canapés to fine wines, desserts to die for and superb aprés wedding canapés, our chefs have a reputation for delivering consistently good fresh locally sourced food.
